

The ThriveTeen FREE Workshop Series

11-12 years old

Speaker:

Lindsay Parr, M.A.

Lindsay is a dedicated professional with expertise in supporting diverse learners across clinical, community, and school settings. Her work with PANDA BLSO has been instrumental in developing the impactful Reading Detectives and Reading Detectives Summer Club programs.

Specializing in social-emotional learning, play-based learning, and structured literacy, she possesses a comprehensive skill set to teach and empower children and adolescents.

Tailored to address the unique challenges faced by teens with ADHD, these engaging and interactive workshops are designed to equip participants with essential skills, tools, and strategies. The goals? Enhance emotional regulation, improve study habits, practice self-care, and foster effective organization.
